Newspaper Establishment for Sale. HE undersigned wishes to dispose of the "Jeffersonian" Printing Office, located in Richmond, Wayne county, Indiana. The Jeffersonian was established in 1837, and has been published regularly since except for a short period in 1839. It has a circulation of over 500, and with proper exertions could be considerably increased. The advertising and job patronage is good. It is the only democratic paper published in the foreth Congressional District, which contains 4,000 democratic voters.

On democratic voters.

The materials of the office consist of a good double medium Rus Press, fonts of Pica, Small Pica, Long Primer, Bourgeois and Brevier type, &c. &c., together with all the necessary materials for printing a newspaper. Also, a good assortment of Job Type, and a Standing Press. The office is among the best of country offices.

Any person wishing to embark in the printing business would find this a favorable location.

For terms, &c. address the undersigned by letter (post paid) a ichmond, ia.
